

KAREN HOWE
... At Bahai Meet

Karen Howe At Congress In England

Miss Karen Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Howe, left by plane last weekend for London, England, to attend the Bahai World Congress in session there this week. The Congress will be attended by Bahais from every part of the world.

Karen, 16, is a senior at South High School. She has been a member of the California Scholarship Society throughout her high school years and was awarded the "Citizen of the Year" recognition by the Daughters of the American Revolution. The student attended El Camino College for an accelerated English course.

Karen, a folk singer and guitarist, who has entertained in Beverly Hills as well as locally, has been accepted by the University of Oregon Honors College and will enroll there in September.

By working part-time at her parents' restaurant, she earned her expense money for her trip to England.

Expect Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Benstead, 1621 Beech Ave., are expecting an old friend, Miss Lorraine Sambo of Lincolnwood, Ill., this weekend for a two weeks visit here.

In Las Vegas

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barbey, 3743 W. 170th St., spent from Friday until Sunday in Las Vegas attending the Shrine convention.

Montgomery Art Festival Set May 15

Art patrons will again be given an opportunity of viewing a rare display when Bishop Montgomery High School art students display paintings and art objects in the school's library on May 15 at 8 p.m.

Due to a limited time and space, admission will be allowed to only 300 patrons. Tickets are available from Mrs. Lars A. Holt, chairman of the festival, or Sister Rose Margaret, Bishop Montgomery High School's art faculty advisor.

Art students from the school have participated in many art contests and have won many prizes. Irene Ryan of Torrance received first place in the contest conducted at Maryvale Orphanage. The contest was judged by Vincent Price, actor and art critic.

The high school is located at 5430 Torrance Blvd. The Mothers' Club meets in the school library, the first Tuesday evening of each month at 8 p.m.

At the next meeting, on May 7, the film "No Time on My Hands" will be shown.

The film depicts a typical day in the life of a Catholic Welfare Bureau Social Worker, portrayed by professionals. All students' mothers are invited to attend.

Hostess at Open House

Mrs. Frederick A. Stange, 3607 W. 225th St., Torrance, president of the Bay Harbor Hospital Auxiliary, will be among the hostesses at the open house of the California College of Medicine on Sunday, May 5. The program beginning at noon consists of tours of the campus at 1721 Griffin Ave., Los Angeles followed by a tea.

Attend Hospital Assn. Convention

Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, president of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary, attended the convention of the Association of Western Hospitals at the Biltmore Hotel from Monday through today.

Attending the workshop sessions with Mrs. Van Lingen were Mmes. Jay Ingles, vice president, and Charles Kirsnis, press chairman.

Pilot President Honored; Make Convention Plans

Pilot Club of Torrance, at its April dinner meeting held at the Polynesian Restaurant, celebrated "President's Night" in honor of Mrs. Herma Tillim, who has served as the club's president during the past year. The members of the club presented Mrs. Tillim a gift as a token of appreciation for her outstanding service. A review of past activities was given by each past president for the year she was in office. The local club, which is a member of Pilot International was organized in May 1955 and will hold its ninth installation of officers this month. Mrs. W. E. (Laila) Bowen will be installed as president for the coming year.

Final plans were discussed for attending the 15th annual district convention of Pilot International, May 3-5, at the Miramar Hotel, Santa Barbara. Mrs. Arlene Saltz, Los Angeles, governor of District 18, will preside at the convention. Mrs. Mary Young of the local club has been appointed district membership chairman and Pilot Information chairman for 1963-64. Mrs. Young first became a member of Pilot International in 1947. Pilot Club of Charleston, W. V., District 10. She moved to California in 1954. She joined the Torrance club in 1957, has held many offices and served the club as president in 1961-62. Mrs. Young is executive secretary to vice president and general manager of Aeronca Mfg. Corp., Aeroal Division, Torrance.

A former member of the Pilot Club of Torrance, who now resides in Apple Valley, Mrs. Peg DeJaire has been appointed chairman of coordinating committee of Pilot International and will also take an active part in the convention.

Another local member, Mrs. Gerald (Leola) Cork has been nominated for the office of District 18 treasurer. Election of district officers will take

Riviera Garden Club Slates Flower Show

Members of the Riviera Garden Club are enthusiastically preparing for their annual spring flower show entitled "May Flower Fashions." It will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles John, show chairman, on Tuesday, May 14. Judging will take place in the morning with the exhibition and a tea following from 1 to 3 p.m. Judges for this year's event are to be Mrs. C. W. Gilkes and Mrs. Ralph Lindsey.

Floral arrangements are to be placed throughout Mrs. John's home and judged for design, suitability, and originality. Tables will also be set up for displays of miniature garden and patio arrangements, horticulture specimens, and a children's division.

Children who participate are to be unassisted as to choice of container, flower, and arranging.

Ribbons will be awarded in each classification with the member winning the most ribbons receiving a sweepstakes prize.

Those on the committee assisting Mrs. Charles John include Mmes. Robert Short, Hugh Brenaman, Robert Atha, Clifford Motley, and Robert Baker.

'Do-It-Yourself' Theme For Fiestadores Dance

A "Do-It-Yourself" theme was chosen by the committee for the April dance of the Las Fiestadores Club Saturday evening at the Pen and Quill restaurant.

Invitations were jigsaw puzzles which recipients had to put together to find information concerning the club dance.

A pre-dance party was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs.

Attend Seminar In Palm Springs

Torrance City Council has been invited to attend a seminar of the Contract Cities of California to be held this weekend at the Riviera Hotel in Palm Springs. Planning to attend are Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen, councilmen and their wives, the Victor Bensteads, Ken Millers and Nick Drales. The group will go to the resort today and return Sunday.

Carl Tabellarlo on Marina Drive in Palos Verdes.

Upon arrival at the Pen and Quill, club members found an added diversion for the evening. They were presented with easels so they could do their own painting between dances. Ken Perkins and his orchestra furnished the dance music.

On the committee were Messrs. and Mmes. E. E. Wilson, William Christian, William Boswell, Drs. and Mmes. Carl Tabellarlo and Philip Halloran.

The club's next event will be an installation dinner dance slated for May 18.
